QUESTION OF THE WEEK: Today's gospel continues with Jesus' advice and instructions to the disciples at the Last Supper. He promises that the Spirit will be there to guide his followers to the truth. The Spirit will speak in Jesus' name, just as Jesus speaks in the Father's name. Each of these three Persons in one God belongs to the other. We call this mystery of God's identity the Blessed Trinity.

Adults: In what difficult situation has the Holy Spirit helped you see more clearly?

Children: What kind of decision can the Holy Spirit help you with?

NEWS FROM OUR TWINNING PARISH STS. PETER & PAUL IN HAITI

Dear Dave:

We have much pleasure in acknowledging receipt of the transfer of $4973.50 from the Bank Nationale de Credit (BNC).

We thank you very much for your faithful generous heart toward us in Sts. Peter & Paul Parish of Marmont. Your supports are very important for the maintenance of the life of our poor parish. Please share our gratitude to all the people in Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament parish. Here in Marmont, our prayers are always with you.

God bless you all!

Fr. Banive Peralte

DO YOU KNOW?

The practice of exposition and Benediction began in the Middle Ages. People did not receive communion very often, so adoration of the Blessed Sacrament was the way in which they connected with Jesus in the Eucharist. The feast of Corpus Christi, or the Body and Blood of Christ, began during this time. On that feast day the Eucharist was placed in a monstrance and carried in procession. Eventually a custom arose in Germany of keeping the Eucharist exposed to view for a certain period of time in church. In France and elsewhere it became the custom to gather in church after work to sing songs to Mary. Over time the two services merged: songs and chanted prayers accompanied the period when the Eucharist was exposed. Next Sunday we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi and on Saturday, June 4 at 4:30 p.m. in the Church we will have a period of Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction as we do the first Saturday of every month. Please consider attending to become more familiar with this practice.

The cost of $15 includes transportation and meals. We will depart from the Pastoral Center at 9:00 a.m. Please register online at www.regonline.com/holydoorpilg.
