QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Jesus is King, but not the kind of king we might have imagined or expected. His kingship was hidden from many of his contemporaries, but those who had the eyes of faith were able to see. As modern disciples of Jesus, we, too, struggle at times to recognize Jesus as King. Today's Gospel invites us to make our own judgment. With eyes of faith, we, too, recognize that Jesus, the crucified One, is indeed King and Savior of all.

Adults: What might sometimes get in your way of seeing clearly that Jesus is your King?

Child: Do you keep your eyes of faith on Jesus as king?

DO YOU KNOW?

The song, "O Come, O Come Emanuel" is ancient and the author unknown. We believe it was written by a monk in the 800s, a time in history we often call "the Dark Ages". Civilization, it seemed, had broken down and mankind was sliding backwards into chaos, ignorance, pestilence and unending warfare. But someone, somewhere in a monastery in Europe, penned a song that would reach across the ages to encourage and thrill millions even in the 21st century.
