DO YOU KNOW?

For those unfamiliar, the sacred stigmata is a special mystical grace given by God wherein the sacred wounds of Jesus are physically imprinted upon an individual – normally upon the hands and feet representing the nail wounds of Jesus, and often also a wound on the side of the individual, close to the heart, representing Jesus’ heart wound from the lance of the Roman soldier. In certain individuals, accompanying the “five wounds” there is also present the crown of thorns encircling the head, and also the shoulder wound representing where our Lord carried the cross. Additionally, there can be numerous wounds representing blows and the scourging that our Lord received. The Church has always taken due care to examine any claims of the stigmata, and a long list of criteria must be met before Church leaders approve it as a supernatural grace. Saints almost never have asked for such a sign, even though they may have been perfectly willing to bear pain in order to be more like Christ. The stigmata is a unique way for a person to be united to Christ’s suffering while on earth and so draw closer to spiritual perfection. Famous stigmatists include Saint Catherine of Siena, Saint John of God, and Saint Marie of the Incarnation. The most famous stigmatist of the twentieth century was Saint Pio of Pietrelcina (1887-1968).

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Death is but a doorway into eternal life. We need not fear the other side. Jesus is waiting for us there. He proved to all of us that there is life after death, by bringing Lazarus back from the dead and by rising for His own grave on Easter morning. This is the Good News that all of mankind longs to hear. Death does not have the final say. Jesus Christ does. Adults: How does belief in the final resurrection from the dead affect your family’s daily life? Children: What do you hope for after your life on earth is ended?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Francis was born on March 27, 1416 in Paola, Italy. At a young age he founded the Order of the Hermits of Saint Francis (of Assisi) called the Minims. Minim meant they were “the least in the household of God". To the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience, Francis added a fourth vow: a perpetual Lenten fast. Francis later felt God calling him to defend those who were poor and oppressed. The Minim order is still active today. Though miracles he performed were numerous, he was canonized for his humility and discernment in blending the contemplative life with the active one. He died on Good Friday, when he was ninety-one years old. He was canonized twelve years after his death. The French Calvinists opened his tomb in 1562. They found his body incorrupt, and destroyed and burned it. Saint Francis of Paola's feast day is April 2nd. He is the patron of boatmen, mariners, and naval officers.

EASTER FOOD BASKETS

Given the restrictions imposed on us, we will be unable to shop and distribute Food Baskets this Easter Season. However, in lieu of Food Baskets, we will be distributing Food Gift Certificates, which will allow families in need to purchase the food they need for their families. While this is not an ideal situation, this will still allow us to help those less fortunate in their time of need. If you have any questions or know of someone in need, please contact Pam Watkins at the Parish Office Tuesdays, Wednesdays, or Thursdays from 10:00am until 4:30pm or contact Erin Hayden or Deidra Kopacki.

To our couples with anniversaries in March: Shawn & Erin Lazar – 3/6/2004 and David & Donna Haviland – 3/7/1998.

2020 Annual Appeal Update: As of 3/19/2020, we have raised 38.96% or $3,927.17 of our goal of $10,080.00 and have collected 35.03% or $3,531.02 of our goal.

Prayer for Life: Join believers throughout the world in praying the Lenten Prayer for Life, found at www.PrayerCampaign.org/lent. Sponsored by Priests for Life, this prayer campaign enables us to pray in the spirit of Lenten penance that the world may turn away from the Culture of Death and embrace a Culture of Life. Then, after Lent, this same campaign will provide a prayer for the Easter Season, focusing on the victory of life. Pray these daily prayers with your families! (Priests for Life)

From the Cemetery Committee: A Cemetery Clean-up will take place in a couple of weeks. Please remove all seasonal items if you want to keep them. Items that are left in the Cemetery for Clean up will be thrown away. We need to get ready for Easter and mowing operations. Thank you.

DIOCESE OF RICHMOND THE SIXTH BISHOP

FATHER Augustine van de Vyver

Father Augustine van de Vyver, born in Belgium, became the sixth bishop of Richmond in 1889. When van de Vyver came to America, he began his work in the western part of Virginia, later becoming vicar general and diocesan administrator.

During this time, St. Katherine Drexel and her half-sister used their inheritance to minister to the African American youth, opening St. Emma's Industrial and Agricultural College of Boys and St. Francis de Sales for girls. Katherine Drexler founded the religious order Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament which cared for African Americans and Indians. Katherine Drexler was the second native-born American to be canonized (2000).

Thomas Fortune Ryan, from Nelson County, was a convert to the Catholic faith. During a train ride to Baltimore, he had a lengthy discussion with the train conductor. Mr. Ryan decided to become a Catholic as a result of this conversation. Mr. Ryan financed the building of a new cathedral in Richmond as a monument to the Catholic presence in Virginia. The Cathedral of the Sacred Heart was dedicated by a papal representative, Archbishop Diomedeo Falconio, on Thanksgiving Day 1906.

There was steady growth within the diocese while van de Vyver was bishop with 30,000 Catholics, sixty priests, 35 parishes with a resident priest, 48 missions, and 40 schools. Van de Vyver remained Bishop of Richmond until his death in 1911.

Mass Readings: Fifth Sunday of Lent

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel

Thus says the Lord GOD: O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them, and bring you back to the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and have you rise from them, O my people! I will put my spirit in you that you may live, and I will settle you upon your land; thus you shall know that I am the LORD. I have promised, and I will do it, says the LORD. The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

R. With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD; LORD, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive to my voice in supplication.

R. With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

If you, O LORD, mark iniquities, LORD, who can stand? But with you is forgiveness, that you may be revered.

R. With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

I trust in the LORD; my soul trusts in his word. More than sentinels wait for the dawn, let Israel wait for the LORD.

R. With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

For with the LORD is kindness and with him is plenteous redemption; And he will redeem Israel from all their iniquities.

R. With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

A Reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters: Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit dwelling in you. The Word of the Lord

Verse Before the Gospel: I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will never die.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John

Now a man was ill, Lazarus from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. Mary was the one who had anointed the Lord with perfumed oil and dried his feet with her hair; it was her brother Lazarus who was ill. So the sisters sent word to him saying, "Master, the one you love is ill." When Jesus heard this he said, "This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So when he heard that he was ill, he remained for two days in the place where he was. Then after this he said to his disciples, "Let us go back to Judea." The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you, and you want to go back there?" Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in a day? If one walks during the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. But if one walks at night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." He said this, and then told them, "Our friend Lazarus is asleep, but I am going to awaken him." So the disciples said to him, "Master, if he is asleep, he will be saved." But Jesus was talking about his death, while they thought that he meant ordinary sleep. So then Jesus said to them clearly, "Lazarus has died. And I am glad for you that I was not there, that you may believe. Let us go to him." So Thomas, called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go to die with him." When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, only about two miles away. And many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him; but Mary sat at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise." Martha said to him, "I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world." When she had said this, she went and called her sister Mary secretly, saying, "The teacher is here and is asking for you." As soon as she heard this, she rose quickly and went to him. For Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still where Martha had met him. So when the Jews who were with her in the house comforting her saw Mary get up quickly and go out, they followed her, presuming that she was going to the tomb to weep there. When Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping and the Jews who had come with her weeping, he became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Sir, come and see." And Jesus wept. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him." But some of them said, "Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?" So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay across it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the dead man's sister, said to him, "Lord, by now there will be a stench; he has been dead for four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus raised his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me. I know that you always hear me; but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me." And when he had said this, He cried out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. So Jesus said to them, "Untie him and let him go." Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done began to believe in him. The Gospel of the Lord

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
