Church Access for Prayers

Anyone who would like to pray or have other devotional practices in the Church between the hours of 9:00am and 4:00pm, Monday through Friday, are asked to please contact the Mercy Center Office at 804-843-3125 first or you may contact Father Oscar's cell phone 757-778-5118 to arrange for access to the Church.

Thank you to all the parishioners who have brought into the office or mailed their weekly contributions allowing us to continue critical operations. We realize it is not the ideal situation; however, our parish office remains open for you to be able to bring or mail your weekly donations. To mail your donations, please mail to Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church, 207 West Euclid Blvd., West Point, VA 23181. Or, you can drop your offertory in the white box marked 'Boogaard Hall' located on the back porch of the Mercy Center. You can also temporarily give online at <https://offertory.richmonddiocese.org/>. Choose our Parish through the Drop-Down - OLBS #623. This will ensure the proceeds go only to our parish. Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

*For the latest information, visit our Website at www.olbs-catholic.org or our Facebook Page at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/237765969363/>.

During this difficult time, we all continue to look for ways to remain close to Jesus, His Blessed Mother, and His Church. In addition to its online edition, MAGNIFICAT is now offering complimentary access to its iOS and Android Apps throughout May.

To register for FREE access in English, visit www.magnificat.com/free. For FREE access in Spanish, visit and register at www.magnificat.com/gratis. We are also happy to make available complimentary access to MAGNIFIKID. Visit www.magnifikid.com/free to view and download each weekly booklet of their colorful Sunday missalette for children ages 6-12. While so many children are missing formal religious instruction and are unable to attend Mass, MagnifiKid! Can be their special guide, accompanying them through each week as they prepare to attend Mass or watch it at home.

By Diocese of Richmond directive, no more than 10 people may be in the church at the same time and must maintain social distancing of at least 6 feet.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

As a young girl growing up in the early 1900's in Santiago, Chile, Juana Fernandez read an autobiography of a French-born-saint - Therese, popularly known as the Little Flower. The experience deepened her desire to serve God and clarified the path she would follow.

At age 19 Juana became a Carmelite nun, taking the name Teresa. The convent offered the simple lifestyle Teresa desired and the joy of living in a community of women completely devoted to God. She focused her days on prayer and sacrifice. "I am God's", she wrote in her diary. "He created me and is my beginning and my end." Toward the end of her short life, Teresa began an apostolate of letter-writing, sharing her thoughts on the spiritual life with many people. At age 20 she contracted typhus and quickly took her final vows. She died a short time later, during Holy Week. Known as the "Flower of the Andes." Teresa remains popular with the estimated 100,000 pilgrims who visit her shrine in Los Andes each year. Canonized in 1993 by Pope John Paul II, she is Chile's first saint. Born: July 13, 1900. Died: April 12, 1920. Teresa of the Andes is the patron saint of young people.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Easter is not only concerned with recalling the Resurrection of Jesus or its impact on the first disciples but also with the meaning of this event for our own lives and for our faith. The celebration of Easter (and the days of Holy Week leading up to it) are a call for us to change - and perhaps change radically - as Jesus' own disciples changed. The sign that we are truly sharing in the Risen Life of Jesus is that our lives and our behavior undergo a constant development. We not only believe; we not only proclaim but we do what we believe and what we proclaim.

Adults: How can your life change to show what you believe and proclaim?

Children: How can you show the Resurrection Jesus to others through your behavior?

DO YOU KNOW?

Many people think that Christmas is the most important day in the Catholic liturgical calendar, but from the earliest days of the Church, Easter has been considered the central Christian feast.

As saint Paul wrote in 1Corinthians 15:14, "If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain." Without Easter - without the Resurrection of Christ - there would be no Christian Faith. Christ's Resurrection is the proof of His Divinity.

To our couples with anniversaries in April: Paul & Valeria Seckora – 4/5/1997; Thomas & Paulette Berberich – 4/11/1964; Billy & Katie Fudella – 4/25/2015.

Happy Easter! He has risen! Let us welcome Jesus even more into our marriages by participating in a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend on May 1-3, 2020 in HICKORY, NC and Sep 11-13, 2020 in Hickory, NC. Early sign up is recommended. For more information visit our website at: <https://renewmarriage-vasouth.org/>

Help Needed!!!

After several years of serving on the OLBS Counting Team Ministry, several members are looking to turn in their calculators and take a well-deserved break. Therefore, we need volunteers to replace them. This ministry takes approximately 3-4 hours each week (usually Tuesday mornings) to sort, count, and prepare our weekly offertory collection deposits. WE currently have two teams on an every-other-week rotation with each team having a lead counter. There are 4-5 additional volunteers who serve as substitutes when needed. It is our hope that several of our parishioners will prayerfully consider becoming a member of our counting teams. Since two of our lead counters are among those wishing to take a break from this ministry, we also have the need to fill those positions, after proper orientation to the process already established, as well. If you feel that you would be willing to serve in our Counting Team Ministry, either as a counter or lead counter, please contact Father Oscar by email at oparaiso@richmond-diocese.org or phone at 757-778-5118 or Bob Ryalls by email: businessmgr@olbs-catholic.org or phone 757-207-0215.

The West Point Meals on Wheels is in desperate need of local volunteer drivers for Wednesday delivery of Meals. Right now there are 8 deliveries with 2 stops that have 3 deliveries. It only takes about an hour out of your Wednesday. Please contact the West Point Meals on Wheels at 804-843-3884. For more information, you can call David Seckora at 804-843-2969 and leave a message. You will get a return call. King William is also in need of volunteers.

Our Easter Mission: "Have no fear. The outcome of the battle for life is already decided, even though the struggle goes on against great odds and with much suffering... "Christ is now raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep ... so in Christ all will come to life again" (1 Cor. 15:20-22). The paradox of the Christian message is this: Christ - the head - has already conquered sin and death. Christ in his body - the pilgrim people of God - continually suffers the onslaught of the Evil One and all the evil which sinful humanity is capable of." The liberating message of the Gospel of life has been put into your hands. And the mission of proclaiming it to the ends of the earth is now passing to your generation. Like the great apostle Paul, you too must feel the full urgency of the task: "Woe to me if I do not evangelize" (1 Cor. 9:16). Woe to you if you do not succeed in defending life. The church needs your energies, your enthusiasm, your youthful ideals, in order to make the Gospel of life penetrate the fabric of society, transforming people's hearts and the structures of society in order to create a civilization of true justice and love." – Pope John Paul II to Youth, August 15, 1993, Denver, Colorado. (Priests for Life)

From the Cemetery Committee: A Cemetery Clean-up will take place in a couple of weeks. Please remove all seasonal items if you want to keep them. Items that are left in the Cemetery for Clean up will be thrown away. We need to get ready for Easter and mowing operations. Thank you.

From the Knights of Columbus: The Knights are still offering refunds for anyone who still has tickets to the canceled Lenten Crab Cake Dinner. There are only 12 tickets still outstanding. To arrange a refund, you can call Philip Liberato at 804-512-9701. You can get a cash refund or 1lb of frozen Chesapeake Bay crab meat for each adult dinner ticket while supplies last.

For our general Church Community, we still have frozen Chesapeake Bay crab meat for sale $13lb or 2lbs for $25.00 while supplies last. We also have 2 trays of frozen cornbread (the kind we used for our fish dinner) also for sale. Each tray has 30 pieces and are for sale for $10. You can purchase half a tray for $6.00 or a bag with 2 pieces for $1. Call Philip Liberato at 804-512-9701 if you are interested in any of these items. Thank you.

2020 Annual Appeal Update: As of 4/2/2020, we have raised 67.13% or $6,767.00 of our goal of $10,080.00 and have collected 55.27% or $5,571.00 of our goal.

Mass Readings: Easter Sunday

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. or: R. Alleluia.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his mercy endures forever. Let the house of Israel say, "His mercy endures forever."

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. or: R. Alleluia.

"The right hand of the LORD has struck with power; the right hand of the LORD is exalted. I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD."

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. or: R. Alleluia.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the LORD has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes.

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. or: R. Alleluia.

A Reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Colossians

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

The Word of the Lord

OR

A Reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters: Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough? Clear out the old yeast, so that you may become a fresh batch of dough, inasmuch as you are unleavened. For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed. Therefore, let us celebrate the feast, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

The Word of the Lord

Sequence Victimae paschali laudes

Christians, to the Paschal Victim

Offer your thankful praises!

A Lamb the sheep redeems;

Christ, who only is sinless,

Reconciles sinners to the Father.

Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous:

The Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring

What you saw, wayfaring.

"The tomb of Christ, who is living,

The glory of Jesus' resurrection;

bright angels attesting,

The shroud and napkin resting.

Yes, Christ my hope is arisen;

to Galilee he goes before you."

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining.

Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning!

Amen. Alleluia.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed; let us then feast with joy in the Lord.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Through the kindness and generosity of our wonderful parishioners, we were able to bless 10 families in need each with a $70 gift certificate to Food Lion. While we were not able to provide the groceries this Easter, we hope they will be able to purchase what they need for their families. Thank you so much for your generosity!!!
