QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How we live our daily lives matters; it is not just about getting up every morning and doing our best to get through the day.

What small but important things do we do each day that brings joy and hope to others and not just ourselves? The challenge and invitation of waiting and being prepared is that we are trying our best to live our daily life as followers of Jesus. This will be seen in how we speak, act and treat others.

Waiting then, is not about some vague and unknown future. Being a Christian and waiting for Jesus is about how we live daily lives, right here and right now.

Adults: How are you preparing to be ready for that moment that no one escapes, the moment when you come to the end of your life as you know it now?

Children: If Jesus came to your house today, what would you do to get ready for Him?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Leo was made Bishop of Rome on the 29th of September 440. In other words, he became pope. Leo is one of only two popes who are called "the Great". The other "great" is the first pope named Gregory. In 452, Leo I peacefully convince Attila the Hun not to destroy and plunder Rome. This made him a legendary figure in Italy. Leo also wrote many scholarly books. One of them, a "Tome" on the Nature of Christ, was read out to both the Roman Emperor and to the Patriarch of Constantinople.

Afterwards, they followed Leo's recommendations, and officially accepted certain religious matters, and rejected others. These decisions had many political implications, in many areas of the Eastern Roman Empire, for centuries to come. His feast day is November 10th.

DO YOU KNOW?

In Roman Catholicism and certain other Christian faith traditions, a saint is a holy person who is known for his or her "heroic sanctity" and who is thought to be in Heaven. In the 10th Century, Pope John XV formalized a process for the identification of the saints. Before that time, saints were largely established by public sect. There are more than 10,000 saints recognized by the Roman Catholic Church, though the names and histories of some of these holy men and women have been lost to history. The saints of the Church are a diverse group of people with varied and interesting stories. Their ranks include martyrs, kings and queens, missionaries, widows, theologians, parents, nuns and priests, and "everyday people" who dedicated their lives to the loving pursuit of God.

"My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God." We were created with a thirst for God. Could He be calling you to quench it by living in Him as a priest, sister or brother? Call Father Brian Capuano at 804-359-5661 or email: vocations@richmonddiocese.org.

Prayer Before Wearing a Facemask

Mother Mary, as I wear this facemask, protect me and All those I encounter from the threat of COVID-19. May I never bring harm upon anyone, knowingly and Unknowingly, by spreading this terrible disease. May The precious Blood of Jesus your Son and our Lord, be our defense and salvation. Amen.

To our couples with anniversaries in November: Paul & Erin Borszich – 11/3/2007; Shane & Donna Donahue – 11/5/2001; Richard & Margaret Mountcastle – 11/6/1971; Jody & Bobbi Drexler – 11/15/2003; Stanley & Geraldine Thomas – 11/22/1959; Joe & Linda Drexler – 11/23/1968

Congratulations to Francisco Garcia Chavez and Guadalupe Jimenez Chavez on the Baptism of their son, Emiliano on October 31st. May Emiliano walk in light of Christ all the days of his life.

Cardinal Bernardin on Life: "Not all values, however, are of equal weight. Some are more fundamental than others. I wish to emphasize that no earthly value is more fundamental than human life itself. Human life is the condition for enjoying freedom and all other values.

Consequently, if one must choose between protecting or serving lesser human values that depend upon life for their existence and life itself, human life must take precedence. Today the recognition of human life as a fundamental value is threatened. Nowhere is this clearer than in the case of elective abortion." (Cardinal Joseph Bernardin, "Deciding for Life," October 1, 1989). (Priests for Life)

CONFIRMATION

Confirmation Class is this Sunday, November 8th at 6:30pm in the Boogaard Hall. Please remember to wear a mask.

I want to say thank you to everyone for supporting me and my Eagle Scout Project over at St. John of Kanti Cemetery located at 18111 Polish Town Road, Barhamsville, VA. Thank you to the Cemetery Committee for allowing me to take on this project and make it my own. With the donations and volunteer help from so many parishioners, the Knights of Columbus, and Troop 360 my project is complete. We held a Rededication of the grounds on Saturday, October 24th, on the 100 year anniversary of when the Church was originally dedicated before it was struck by lightning and burned down. A pathway now leads to the steps, all that remains of the Church, for everyone to see and visit. I ask that if you are ever passing through Barhamsville to stop and take a look at the project you all have helped support. THANK YOU!!!

Mass Readings: Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time – Eucharistic Congress Weekend

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

This is what Isaiah, son of Amoz, saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. In days to come, The mountain of the LORD'S house shall be established as the highest mountain and raised above the hills. All nations shall stream toward it; many peoples shall come and say: "Come, let us climb the LORD'S mountain, to the house of the God of Jacob, That he may instruct us in his ways, and we may walk in his paths." For from Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. He shall judge between the nations, and impose terms on many peoples. They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; One nation shall not raise the sword against another, nor shall they train for war again. O house of Jacob, come, Let us walk in the light of the LORD!

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

R. Their message goes out through all the earth.

The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament proclaims his handiworks. Day pours out the word of day, and night to night imparts knowledge.

R. Their message goes out through all the earth.

Not a word nor a discourse whose voice is not heard; Through all the earth their voice resounds, and to the ends of the world, their message.

R. Their message goes out through all the earth.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Those who had been scattered by the persecution that arose because of Stephen went as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to no one but Jews. There were some Cypriots and Cyrenians among them, however, who came to Antioch and began to speak to the Greeks as well, proclaiming the Lord Jesus. The hand of the Lord was with them and a great number who believed turned to the Lord. The news about them reached the ears of the Church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to go to Antioch. When he arrived and saw the grace of God, he rejoiced and encouraged them all to remain faithful to the Lord in firmness of heart, for he was a good man, filled with the Holy Spirit and faith. And a large number of people was added to the Lord. Then he went to Tarsus to look for Saul, and when he had found him he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they met with the Church and taught a large number of people, and it was in Antioch that the disciples were first called Christians.

The Word of the Lord

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus appeared to the Eleven and said to them: "Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved; whoever does not believe will be condemned. These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will drive out demons, they will speak new languages. They will pick up serpents with their hands, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not harm them. They will lay hands on the sick and they will recover." So then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God. But they went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word through accompanying signs.

The Gospel of the Lord

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Christmas is Fast Approaching!!!

Food Baskets: We will be collecting money for Christmas Food Baskets. Adults will be doing the shopping and anyone who wants to help sort and put together the Food Baskets will be able to meet us at Boogaard Hall, Saturday, December 19th about 1:30pm.

More details to come. Any children under 18 who would like to assist with the shopping will need to have a parent accompany them and drive them to the store.

Please call Pam Watkins with any questions at the Church Office or at 919-820-1986.

Anyone wishing to donate funds for the Food Baskets can put in a plain envelope clearly marked for Food Baskets and put in regular offertory or drop by the office.

Giving Tree: Look for the Giving Tree to be put up in the next week or two. We will have only until Sunday, December 6th to get the gifts back to the Church so that we can get them to those who will distribute them. Due to Covid-19, this year they are asking that all gifts be put in Black trash or Leaf Bags with a detachable list of what is included. The gifts inside the bags may be wrapped because they will be handed to the children just as they receive them. If you have any questions, please contact Pam Watkins at the Church Office or call 919-820-1986.

Remember to pray the Rosary fervently to our Blessed Mother Mary for her intercession and the protection of our country during these uncertain times.
