Masses Continue to be Offered!

Due to COVID-19, Mass is being live streamed for use on various Diocesan digital media accounts of the Catholic Diocese of Richmond, including, but not limited to, the websites of the Catholic Diocese of Richmond and the Catholic Virginian, and social media platforms of the Catholic Diocese of Richmond. Photography and/or screenshot images from the livestream may be used for the Catholic Virginian print edition. If you do not wish to be captured by live streaming, please refrain from attending that particular Mass time.

There will be some mandated changes to how we practice our Mass. Effective immediately:

1. For those who have not received a vaccine and continue to feel uncomfortable returning to Mass, Bishop Knestout has dispensed all Catholics in the Diocese from their Sunday Mass obligation.
2. If you have a fever or symptoms of Covid-19, you will not be permitted to enter the building.
3. You should arrive early for Mass to allow time for temperature testing and being seated by the ushers. The ushers will let each pew know the staggered process for exiting the Church once Mass is over.
4. Everyone shall maintain six feet of social distance from others who are not from the same household at all times while in Church or on Church property.
5. Everyone 5 years and older attending Mass shall wear a Cloth Face Mask. Those who cannot wear a cloth mask may wear a face shield. Be sure the mask covers your nose and mouth. (Face mask should be removed only for Receiving Holy Communion.) Anyone who comes to any Mass (including daily Mass) without a face covering, will not be admitted to Mass.
6. Look for direction from the ushers when going up to receive Holy Communion. Holy Communion should be received in the hand until further notice. There will be no distribution of the Blood of Christ until further notice.
7. Refrain from physical contact, such as holding hands during the Our Father and shaking hands during the Sign of Peace.
8. Singing by the congregation is discouraged.
9. Sanitize hands when entering & leaving Church.
10. Bulletins will be available at Masses.

We will continue to make the bulletins available online and mail bulletins to those without Internet access. Please let us know if we can discontinue mailing bulletins to you.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Today's Gospel should question us about our testimony. We cannot claim that we have met Jesus if our lives do not show the indelible signs of this encounter. We must be careful not to be those responsible for the doubt in so many men and women who seek untiringly the traces of the Risen One in us. Perhaps it would be better to accept the doubts that hide in us, our incredulity, our kinship with Thomas, so as not to frighten ourselves if we find that we live our spiritual lives imperfectly, sometimes believing and sometimes doubting. The good news is that even when the doors of our hearts are closed, Jesus comes to visit us all the same.

Adults: What hinders you from keeping the doors of your heart open?

Children: Even though you can't see Jesus with your eyes, how do you "see" Jesus in others?

DO YOU KNOW?

The Shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes is a popular pilgrimage destination for those seeking miraculous healings. The shrine holds a spring of water which is said to have miraculous healing properties. While there have been more than 7,000 miraculous recoveries attributed to the intercession of Our Lady of Lourdes at the French shrine, only 70 cases have been officially recognized by the Catholic Church, the last occurring in 2008. A miraculous recovery must generally be complete, spontaneous, and immediate healing from a documented medical condition.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Bernadette Soubirous was born at Lourdes, France on January 7th. She was the oldest of nine children and the family lived in extreme poverty. She was uneducated and she was a sickly child as she suffered from asthma.

When she was 14 years old and collecting firewood she saw a vision of the Virgin Mary in a cover above the riverbank. Mary would appear to her 17 more times. Despite great hostility on the part of the civil authorities, Bernadette persisted in her claims. On February 25th a spring began to flow where none had been before. Our Lady told her that she was "The immaculate Conception" and directed her to have a chapel built on the site. She later became a Sister of Notre Dame and remained there until she died on April 16th at the age of 35. Thirty years after her death, St. Bernadette's coffin was opened as a standard step of the beatification process. A table had been set up for her bones to be placed on, but to the wonder of all, when the tomb was opened, her body was discovered perfectly incorrupt. Although her rosary had rusted, there was no sign of decay in St. Bernadette; she looked as if she had merely fallen asleep. Her incorrupt body can be seen today, at the Chapel of St. Gildard in Nevers, France. Her feast day is April 16th and she is the patron saint of the poor, those ridiculed for their faith, the sick, and shepherds.

Divine Mercy Sunday focuses on the gift of mercy and love given through Christ's death, burial, and Resurrection.

We celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy on the Sunday after Easter Sunday. As Saint Pope John Paul II stated, "Divine Mercy reaches human beings through the heart of Christ crucified." At a time when some Catholics had an image of God as such a strict judge that they might be tempted to despair about the possibility of being forgiven, Jesus chose to emphasize His mercy and forgiveness for sins acknowledged and confessed. Sister Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun, received several visions from Christ in the period of 1931-1938. He urged her to tell the world of His love and mercy for all sinners. "I do not want to punish aching mankind," He told her "but I desire to heal it, pressing it to My merciful heart." The two rays emanating from Christ's heart, she said, represent the blood and water poured out after Jesus' death. You can read more about Sister Faustina and her visions by reading her diary: Divine Mercy in My Soul or by viewing the 2019 video Faustina: Love and Mercy.

The Chaplet: Today's observance of Divine Mercy Sunday is a good time to renew our devotion to the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. There is a close link between this devotion and the pro-life movement. Fr. Seraphim Michalenko, MIC, who was a principal translator of St. Faustina's diary, and the postulator of her cause of canonization, writes the following "On at least three occasions, from 8:00-11:00 in the evening, she felt like her insides were being torn apart. She suffered so much that she thought she was going to die. The doctors couldn't figure out what was ailing her, and no medication was able to alleviate her sufferings. Later, she was given to understand that she was undergoing those pains for mothers who were aborting their children (Diary, 1276). "On another occasion, she had a vision of an angel coming with thunderbolts to destroy one of the most beautiful cities of her country. And she felt powerless to do anything about it (Diary, 474). What antidote did the Lord give her? The Chaplet of Divine Mercy. [She explained] that the city was to be chastised for its sins, primarily the sin of abortion." ("Wombs of Mercy," Marian Helpers Bulletin, Summer 1995, p.13). In 2003, Pope John Paul II issued an Apostolic Blessing to all who pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet "for mothers, that they not abort their offspring; for infants in danger of being put to death in the womb; for a change of heart of providers of abortions and of their collaborators; for human victims of stem cell research, genetic manipulation, cloning and euthanasia; and for all entrusted with the government of peoples, that they may promote the Culture of Life, so as to put an end to the culture of death." (Priests for Life)

From Haiti

A cordial greeting to you and all of OLBS. I wish you a happy, peaceful and blessed Easter! May God be with you & your family on this day and forever. On behalf of my parishioners, I would like to extend our sincere gratitude for all your support in helping us in building the Kingdom of God in our poor community at Marmont. I also need to inform you that my Bishop, Monsignor Jean Desinord, is moving me to another parish. On May 10th, I will be leaving Sts. Peter & Paul to go to my new parish. The new priest here will be Father Raphael Bernardin Desras. He will contact you soon. I would like to thank you for working with me during my years here. I leave here with heart full of gratitude for you Dave, the Pastor, and for each faithful of the parish of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament. You will always be in my thoughts and humble prayers. Please pray for my new mission. Please visit me when you visit Haiti. With warmest thanks, Fr. Banive Peralte

Mass Readings: Divine Mercy Sunday

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common. With great power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great favor was accorded them all. There was no needy person among them, for those who owned property or houses would sell them, bring the proceeds of the sale, and put them at the feet of the apostles, and they were distributed to each according to need.

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

R. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting. or: R. Alleluia.

Let the house of Israel say, "His mercy endures forever." Let the house of Aaron say, "His mercy endures forever." Let those who fear the LORD say, "His mercy endures forever."

R. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting. Or: R. Alleluia.

I was hard pressed and was falling, but the LORD helped me. My strength and my courage is the LORD, and he has been my savior. The joyful shout of victory in the tents of the just:

R. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting. or: R. Alleluia.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the LORD has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes. This is the day the LORD has made; let us be glad and rejoice in it.

R. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting. or: R. Alleluia.

A Reading from the First Letter of Saint John

Beloved: Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him. In this way we know that we love the children of God when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments.

And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. And the victory that conquers the world is our faith. Who indeed is the victor over the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is the one who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ, not by water alone, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the one that testifies, and the Spirit is truth.

The Word of the Lord

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me, says the Lord; Blessed are those who have not seen me, but still believe!

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The Holy Gospel According to John

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

The Gospel of the Lord

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
