QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Just as Jesus told Mary Magdalene to "go tell", we are also called to do so. We need to radiate the Risen Lord all around us. We are called to be transparent Christians, showing others through our lives the love, mercy, compassion, and the spirit of self-sacrificing service lived by the Risen Jesus dwelling in our hearts. We are called to let His light shine through ours!

Adults: Where in your life does Christ's light need to shine brighter?

Children: What does Jesus' Resurrection mean to you?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

As both a child and adult Saint Isidore of Seville was a strong believer in education.

Two of his brothers and sister are also saints. His love of learning made him promote the establishment of a seminary in every diocese of Spain. He didn't limit his own studies and didn't want others to as well. In a unique move, he made sure that all branches of knowledge including the arts and medicine were taught in seminaries. His encyclopedia of knowledge, the Etymologies, was a popular textbook for nine centuries. He also wrote books on grammar, astronomy, geography, history, and biography as well as theology.

He died in 636 at the age of 80. We celebrate his feast day on April 4th and he was named patron saint of the internet by Pope Saint John Paul II because of his attempt to record everything ever known.

Our sincerest condolences to Kathy Wills and family at the loss of her mother in January. May she rest in peace and the Perpetual Light shine upon her.

DO YOU KNOW?

A doctor of the Church is a person whose teaching on faith has been deemed sound and of benefit to the Church through their writing, study, or research. Along with significant theological contribution, the person must also display a high degree of sanctity, which is why all Church doctors are also canonized saints. A third requirement to be named a doctor of the Church is formal proclamation as such by the pope or an ecumenical council. There are 36 named Doctors of the church, four of which are women.

Our Easter Mission: "Have no fear. The outcome of the battle for life is already decided, even though the struggle goes on against great odds and with much suffering... "Christ is now raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep ... so in Christ all will come to life again" (1 Cor. 15:20:22). The paradox of the Christian message is this: Christ - the head - has already conquered sin and death. Christ in his body - the pilgrim people of God - continually suffers the onslaught of the Evil One and all the evil which sinful humanity is capable of. "The liberating message of the Gospel of life has been put into your hands. And the mission of proclaiming it to the ends of the earth is now passing to your generation. Like the great apostle Paul, you too must feel the full urgency of the task: "Woe to me if I do not evangelize" (1 Cor. 9:16). Woe to you if you do not succeed in defending life. The church needs your energies, your enthusiasm, your youthful ideals, in order to make the Gospel of life penetrate the fabric of society, transforming people's hearts and the structures of society in order to create a civilization of true justice and love." – Pope John Paul II to Youth, August 15, 1993, Denver, Colorado. Mass Readings: Easter Sunday

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. or: R. Alleluia.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his mercy endures forever. Let the house of Israel say, "His mercy endures forever."

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. or: R. Alleluia.

"The right hand of the LORD has struck with power; the right hand of the LORD is exalted. I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD."

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. or: R. Alleluia.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the LORD has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes.

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. or: R. Alleluia.

A Reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Colossians

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

The Word of the Lord

Sequence

Christians, to the Paschal Victim Offer your thankful praises! A Lamb the sheep redeems; Christ, who only is sinless, Reconciles sinners to the Father. Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous: The Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal. Speak, Mary, declaring What you saw, wayfaring. "The tomb of Christ, who is living, The glory of Jesus' resurrection; Bright angels attesting, The shroud and napkin resting. Yes, Christ my hope is arisen; to Galilee he goes before you." Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining. Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! Amen. Alleluia.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed; let us then feast with joy in the Lord.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The Holy Gospel According to John

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Many thanks to Adelyn Gibbs, Misael Hernandez, Mason Kopacki, Ryan Lorenzo-Sprouse, Allison Smith and her friend Samantha for giving their time and talent to stuff 17 Easter treat bags for the children of food box recipients and making 60 bunny bags for the Convalescent Center staff that will be working on Easter weekend. We are so blessed to have our youth be involved in our ministries!

Thanks to the wonderful generosity of our parishioners, we were able to shop for and create 12 Food Baskets with enough groceries to last 1-3 weeks, depending on the size of the family. We even have $765 leftover that will go towards the Christmas Food Baskets this year. A great big thank you goes to our generous parishioners and Sandy & Quan Dinh who not only helped but furnished a delicious lunch for everyone! It was so appreciated!!! Thank you so much to Erin Hayden; Linda Via; Deidra, Kevin, Kody & Mason Kopacki; Jackie & Misael Hernandez; Bob & Lorraine Ryalls & Youth Group; and Scott Watkins.
