THE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

St. Joseph is pure of heart.

To be chaste is to be pure of heart. If a person's heart is not pure, they are incapable of seeing God. Saint Joseph's heart is exceptionally pure. Saint Joseph gazed on the countenance of God in the Person of his son for decades. Poets have often stated that the eyes are the window to the soul. If this is true, St. Joseph must have had the most chaste and pure eyes of any husband who ever lived. His eyes and heart were pure-intentioned, chaste, and afire with love for Jesus and Mary. Modern man has become blinded by impurity. The world encourages premarital relations, cohabitation, contraception, and many other immoral practices. Chastity is a forgotten virtue today. Even married couples live with the idea that they are free to do whatever they desire with the body of their spouse. However, this is not true. Chastity is required in marriage as well, in order for couples to truly love one another, to retain their dignity and respect for each other.

(Pray the Litany of St. Joseph)

To our couples with anniversaries in October:
 Brandon & Gigi Jordan – 10/3/2009; Albert & Gloria Wajciechowski – 10/10/1970; (David "Charlie") & Jeanie Sturtz – 10/11/1968; Frank & Mary Ann Fetterolf – 10/19/1963; Kevin & Deidra Kopacki – 10/20/2001; Mike & Nancy Pausic – 10/29/1960; Scott & Pam Watkins – 10/29/1983.

ARE YOU IN NEED OF PRAYER? DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE IN NEED OF PRAYER? Please contact the prayer chain to request any prayers needed. Anonymous Prayer Requests accepted. Contact: On Tuesdays, Wednesdays & Thursdays, please contact Pam Watkins at the Church office at 804-843-3125 from 9:00am through 4:30pm. ## SAINT OF THE WEEK

Maria Faustina Kowalska, recognized in the Roman Catholic Church as Saint Faustina (born Helena Kowalska, August 25, 1905 in Glogowiec - October 5, 1938 in Krakow, Poland, was a Polish nun. Throughout her life, Faustina reported having visions of Jesus and conversations with Him, which she wrote about in her diary, later published as the book The Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska: Divine Mercy in My Soul. At age 20 she joined a convent in Warsaw and was later transferred to Plock and then to Vilnius where she met her confessor, Father Michael Sopocko, who supported her devotion to the Divine Mercy. Faustina and Sopocko directed an artist to paint the first Divine Mercy image, based on Faustina's reported vision of Jesus, Sopocko used the image to celebrate the first Mass on the first Sunday after Easter - which later was established by Pope John Paul II as Divine Mercy Sunday. Faustina was canonized as a saint by the Roman Catholic Church on April 30, 2000, having been considered a mystic and visionary. She is known and venerated within the Church as the Apostle of Divine Mercy. Her feast day is October 5th.

Marriage and the Gift of Life "A certain sharing by man in God's lordship is also evident in the specific responsibility which he is given for human life as such. It is a responsibility which reaches its highest point in the giving of life through procreation by man and woman in marriage. As the Second Vatican Council teaches: "God himself who said, 'It is not good for man to be alone' (Gen 2:18) and 'who made man from the beginning male and female' (Mt 19:4), wished to share with man a certain special participation in his own creative work. Thus he blessed male and female saying: 'Increase and multiply' (Gen 1:28)" (Pope John Paul II, The Gospel of Life, n. 43) (Priests for Life)

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Cemetery News

With the holiday seasons fast approaching, we would like to remind all that if you plan on placing any decorations in either St. Theresa or St. John of Kanti cemeteries that they stay within the guidelines of the Catholic Church. If you are not sure, please feel free to ask any member of the Cemetery Committee or see the posted guidelines in the rear of the Church. Remember also that after the holiday has passed that any item you wish to have back should be picked up as soon as possible so as not to be lost. The Cemeteries have 2 major clean ups during the year, the last week in October and the week prior to Holy Week; however, this does not mean that at any time during the course of the year the cemeteries cannot be picked up and old or damaged items removed. As always, please feel free to contact us with any questions or concerns.

Dios el Padre no ha dado a Su Unigénito al mundo, excepto por María. Cualesquiera que sean los suspiros que los patriarcas hayan enviado, - cualesquiera que sean las oraciones que los profetas y los santos de la ley antigua hayan ofrecido para obtener ese tesoro durante cuatro mil años completos-, fue sino María quien lo mereció: no fue más que María quien encontró la gracia ante Dios por la fuerza de sus oraciones y la eminencia de sus virtudes. El mundo era indigno, dice San Agustín, de recibir al Hijo de Dios inmediatamente de las manos del Padre. Él lo ha dado a María para que el mundo pueda recibirlo a través de ella. El Hijo de Dios se ha hecho hombre: pero fue en María y por María. Dios el Espíritu Santo ha formado a Jesucristo en María; pero fue sólo después de haberle pedido su consentimiento por uno de los primeros ministros de su corte. Dios Padre ha comunicado a María su fecundidad, en la medida en que una mera criatura era capaz de hacerlo, para que Él pudiera darle el poder de producir a su Hijo, y a todos los miembros de su Cuerpo místico. Dios el Hijo ha descendido a su vientre virginal, como el nuevo Adán al paraíso terrestre, para llevar Su placer allí, y para trabajar en secreto las maravillas de Su raza G.
